H. Remind Him of His Mother's Cook-ing.

Philadelphia Call.

Mr. B.—These biscuits remind me of mother's.

Mrs. B.—Well, I declare! Have you gone crazy?

Mr. B.—Well, I never expected to hear you say that any of my cooking resembles your mother's. She was a wonderful cook. I have no doubt, for you have said so many times.

Mr. B.—Yes, she certainly was. In fact I was only one dish that she ever failed to cook.

Mrs. B.—What was that?

Mr. B.—Biscuits.

The Returns.

So far that President Arthur is far in the lead of all other aspirants for the Republican nomination at the Chicago convention. The New York Herald gives the following:

Arthur	39
Burnham	40
Logan	49
Blaine	50
John Sherman	52
Garrison	53
Peterson	54
Gen. Sherman	55
Ulysses S. Grant	56

The total vote in the convention will be 280, and it will require 411 to nominate. Of the remaining 242 delegates to be selected the Heron estimates that Arthur will receive 120, and that he will go into the convention with a total of 312, or 21 more than a majority. This result will not be surprising, in view of the fact that Mr. Arthur has proved to be the most capable and acceptable President elected by the Republican party.

On the Next Block.

After walking up and down several times past a giraffe avenue clothing dealer's yesterday a stranger halted and said to the man at the door:

"Do you remember me, sir?"

"Not very exactly, my friend. Who was you?"

"I'm the man who paid you $28 for a suit of bottle-green clothes last October, and instead of a week the month ate 'em up."

"You don't say so?"

"You bet I do, and I'm here to get satisfaction!"

My friend, you made a beautiful gift, taking all the months in the store to have them made for $11. If dot mand on next block keeps his in her portfolio green suits for $28 dots vins all right. No two men are alike, so if you go to see where you intend to sell them, go before you pin his head off, so he keeps his motifs in her portfolio green suits he'll still soon had to shut up shop. Der shade makes eafey insect color blind in ten days."

That's nothing for the contented life sphere,

An inquest was held over the remains of Alex Snetz, this morning, by Magistrate M. F. Marsh and the following verdict found:

We the jury find from the evidence that Alex Snetz, of Mason County, Ky., was killed by a bullet shot fired from a pistol shot wound, inflicted on him by Joseph Weaver, of Mayfield. We further find that said shot was fired by one Joseph Weaver, but do not know whether he intended to kill us whether Weaver fired said shot in self-defense or in a fit of rage. Her father and mother passed away at Mayfield, yesterday, on their way to Jamestown.

A POSTMORTEM examination of the remains of Alex Snetz was made on Tuesday evening by Doctors Strode and Browning, and it was ascertained that the ball which caused death, entered the body about one inch below the upper part of the hip-bone and passed directly backward and downward injuring the small intestines and passing into the left side of the rectum or lower bowel, from which it probably passed out. Death was caused by the injury to the intestines and consequent hemorrhages.
